Collazo To Die In The Chair

Guilty in Attempt To Assassinate President Truman November 1, 1950

By Karl R. Bauman

WASHINGTON, April 6—(P)—Oscar Collazo, 37, today was sentenced to die in the electric chair Oct. 26 for the attempted assassination of President Truman last fall and the slaying of a presidential guard.

In an impassioned outburst, Collazo said he did not want to plead for his life but for Puerto Rico's independence. Turning to the court room audience, the little Puerto Rican shouted:

"Whatever I did, I did it for a just cause. I did it for my country."

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough explained that he set the execution date for next fall because Collazo's court-appointed attorneys already have given notice of an appeal.

Goldsborough said that if appeal actions were not completed by Oct. 26 he would grant a stay of execution at that time.

At his trial, Collazo had contended he and a companion, Griselio Torresola, were only demonstrating for Puerto Rican independence when they attempted to storm Blair House last Nov. 1. Torresola and a White House guard, Leslie Coffelt, were killed in a furious exchange of pistol shots.

"Pleading for Cause"

"I am not pleading for my life," Collazo told the judge. "I'm pleading for my cause. Anything that I have done I did for the liberty of my country. I insist, even unto the end, that we have a right to be free."

Collazo's 42-year-old wife, Rosa, heard her husband doomed without any show of emotion.

Afterward, jury reporters that her husband's death, will not weaken the cause of Puerto Rican independence "but will make it stronger."

"I will stay side by side to him," Mrs. Collazo added.

The death sentence was mandatory from a jury's verdict March 7 that Collazo was guilty of two counts of first degree murder.

Both murder charges were based on Coffelt's death. One alleged deliberate and premeditated murder. The other charged murder while attempting to break into Blair House's temporary residence.

With intent to assassinate the President.

After the sentencing, Collazo was led through the corridors of the court building back to jail.

Mrs. Collazo was waiting to see him. She smiled. She waved and said something in Spanish.

Judge Goldsborough said the jury's verdict left him no discretion—that he must impose the death penalty. He said, too, that he felt Collazo was clearly guilty of first degree murder on both counts in the indictment.

The judge then recalled it was the "proper custom" to ask whether the defendant had anything to say.

Collazo began by saying some Americans "do not believe that whatever I did, I did for a just cause. I did it for my country."

He went on to say that he still wants to make the American people see that more than 65 persons have been killed and more than 200 wounded in Puerto Rico. He attributed this to American rule and declared:

"I still insist that my country be free."

Through history, he said, millions of people have been killed for liberty. At the present time, Collazo went on, thousands of Puerto Ricans are fighting in Korea "for liberty of the free nations of the world."

Then looking straight at the judge, he concluded:

"I put my life in your hands. I have nothing further to say. Thank you, your honor."

The judge said he had no reason to believe that Collazo was not serious in what he said. But, he told him, he also thinks conditions in Puerto Rico "have nothing to do with the law or the morals in this case."

Furthermore, the judge said, he feels conditions in Puerto Rico are infinitely better than they were under Spanish rule.

At the noon hour the group attended a luncheon at the Old Missouri Homestead at which I. H. Reed, of the Sedalia Water Co., acted as toastmaster.

The meeting will end late this afternoon.

David A. Thompson, assistant United States attorney, said witnesses from the two Jasper county cities would be called to testify Monday.

He said the jury may make a public statement next week.

Calls For Gen. MacArthur's Dismissal

COPENHAGEN, April 6—(P)—Information, an independent newspaper, called editorially today for the dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur as the U. N. supreme commander in Korea.

The paper said the trouble is that MacArthur is extremely popular in the United States, and urged governments of other U. N. countries, "where people do not pray to MacArthur," to press for his dismissal.

(Denmark has no troops in the U. N. force in Korea.)

Armstrong is For Blow on Enemy Bases

He And Rep. Born Favor Strike on Them From Air

By Don Huth

TOKYO, April 6—Two United States congressmen said today Allied planes should be allowed to hit Chinese bases in Manchuria that serve the Reds' Korean war effort.

"We fail to see how the war can be won if our forces cannot carry the action to enemy territory," said Reps. W. J. Bryan Dorn (D-SC) and O. K. Armstrong (R-Mo) in a joint statement after a visit to Korea.

They said General MacArthur and his field commanders "should not be restricted in military actions which they consider necessary."

"It's like asking our boys to fight with one hand tied behind them."

"We talked to our pilots just in from the big fight with MIG-jet planes Wednesday afternoon and they told us bitterly how they are compelled to wait until enemy planes take off, rise, gain speed and cross over for the attack, then scoot back to their safe bases across the river."

Armstrong said later at a news conference that this "intolerable situation" must be removed soon. He blamed the failure to reach a decision to send United Nations planes across the Yalu river on what he called:

1. Influential members of the United Nations, such as Britain, "who are opposed to crossing the 38th parallel let alone the Manchurian border."

2. The State department for allowing a decision in the matter to "drag."

3. The "mistaken opinion we can appease the Reds."

Armstrong said the Allies should take the "calculated risk" of crossing the border because he felt the Russians will not actively enter the Korean war.

Armstrong and Dorn said MacArthur told them at a conference today that air power in the Korean war has been "monumental."

They quoted the general as saying it has been the decisive factor on many occasions.

Both congressmen are air force veterans and members of the U. S. Air Force association.

They praised MacArthur for his conduct of the war and his conduct of the occupation of Japan.

They are scheduled to leave Tokyo for Formosa this week-end and then return to Washington.

Further Cut in Use of Tin Cans

WASHINGTON, April 6—(P)—The government today ordered a further cut in use of tin cans for packing civilian products for the three-month period began April 1.

The quota for use in tin cans for beer, pet food and various other items was reduced from 90 per cent to 75 per cent of average use in 1949 or 1950.

Packers of perishable foods and a few items such as blood plasma still are permitted unlimited use of tin cans.

Non-perishable foods, which were allowed 100 per cent of 1949 or 1950 use during the first quarter of this year, will be permitted to use 75 or 100 per cent of quotas, depending on individual items.

Some non-food products were reduced to 75 or 90 per cent use in the second quarter, again depending on the item.

The new steps to save tin for defense needs were ordered by the National Production authority.

Blaze Charred Pelican Stadium

NEW ORLEANS, April 6—(P)—Fire charred up an estimated $12,000 worth of Pelican stadium here yesterday and gave the Chicago Cubs a sixth-inning 2-1 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"Called on account of fire" was the unusual announcement that came over the public address system as smoke billowed from behind home plate.

A blaze of undetermined origin started beneath a stairway leading to the main section of the grandstand. When spectators saw the smoke they broke for the side exits.

The Cubs, winners of the short-lived exhibition game, also beat the Pirates out of the park.

No one was injured.

Britain is Still Tightening Up as to Its Economy

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The British government has informed its people that the nation must go on walking the economic tight-rope so long as the country is compelled to continue its defensive rearmament program.

The annual official economic survey presents a grim picture of much further austerity to "people who already have had a bitter decade of it. Experts figure it will take four or five years more to finish the rearmament program, even if war is averted."

This burden is imposed on a people who have no fat left on their bones. It would be a tough program on any country, even if there were fat.

Blame for this critical position is laid squarely on the menace of Russian armies. That charge, by the way, must be taken as a backhanded admission that the Bolshevik "cold war" is succeeding in its aim of causing economic difficulties among the democracies. Britain isn't by any means the only one hard hit by the necessity of arming against implied or actual Red threats.

An important aspect of this

Essary Held in Slaying of Four

MANSFIELD, Mo., April 6—(P)—A coroner's jury, meeting for a hurriedly-called inquest, today held Kenneth Essary, 23-year-old farm youth, to blame for the deaths of four members of an Ozark farm family.

Coroner K. K. Kelley said Essary, when told of the inquest scheduled this afternoon, said he wanted to talk to the jury "right now while I'm in my right mind."

Four separate first degree murder charges were filed against the youth by Prosecuting Attorney John Hosmer in the rifle-slaying of William Shockley, 43; his wife, Clara, 44; their daughter, Helen Louise, 16 and Shockley's mother, Mrs. Gus Shockley, 73.

Hosmer had filed charges in Shockley's death and today filed separate charges in the slaying of the other three.

After Essary's statement today, Kelley quickly called Sheriff E. I. Cunningham and the inquest started at 9:30 a. m. Essary agreed to talk to only Kelley and the jurors and said if anyone else showed up he would refuse to say anything.

Then, taking the stand, Essary told his story of the shootings Tuesday night at the Shockley farm, which borders his rented farm in this Ozark country.

Cunningham said Essary told this story to the jurors:

Essary said he went to the Shockley house Tuesday night to talk to Shockley and apologize if anything was wrong between them. Then he said he got rattled and shot the four of them.

Slash Made by Committee on Appropriation

Cut 43 Per Cent On Emergency Fund Sought

WASHINGTON, April 6—(P)—The House appropriations committee voted a 43 per cent cut today in a $843,463,569 emergency fund asked by President Truman.

It approved only $478,136,368 of the total sought by Mr. Truman to finance a number of emergency government activities for the remaining months of this fiscal year which ends June 30.

One of the larger cuts was in the Voice of America overseas broadcast program. Despite a plea yesterday by the president for the full amount, the committee recommended that only $9,533,939 of the $97,500,000 be granted.

Another cut was in the $454,000,000 budget of non-military defense agencies. The committee voted to hold the agencies to $224,750,000.

The committee's recommendations were embodied in a supplemental appropriation bill sent to the House floor for debate next week.

The House, the Senate appropriations committee and the Senate itself have yet to pass on the amounts.

Along the line, the sums may be lowered or raised. Usually, the final form of a bill finds early cuts restored, at least.

More FBI Agents

The House committee approved funds for the employment of 1,260 additional FBI agents, for the repair and reactivation of 100 merchant ships in the laid-up fleet and for veterans' benefits including the purchase of 500 specially equipped automobiles for disabled veterans.

It rejected a $20,000,000 request to move 19,000 federal employees out of crowded Washington, saying there were no firm plans for the transfers.

The biggest single cut was in the budget of the Civil Defense Administration. Mr. Truman asked $403,000,000 for this purpose and the committee recommended $186,750,000.

For operation of programs growing out of the 1950 defense production act, the committee recommended $38,000,000 a cut of $13,000,000.

In explanation of its larger reductions, the committee said it is time for the executive agencies to make sacrifices in the interest of strengthening the nation. All these agencies, it said, seem willing to assist in the defense effort "provided they get additional funds and staff therefor and provided they can continue to carry on their regular activities."

Point To Defense

Instead of going "all out for a resumption of normal peacetime functions" in the last few years, the committee said, the executive agencies should have pointed their activities toward national defense.

It said it is "unrealistic and wholly unreasonable" to assume that it takes 2,300,000 federal employees to govern the country.

"A normal emergency" and then demand that "a new army of specialists" be recruited for added tasks.

Strong winds were reported in the southwestern states.

The labor members are CIO President Philip Murray, AFL President William Green, Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO Auto Workers, and George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer.

Union leaders agreed at a White House meeting with Mr. Truman yesterday to accept membership on the board and expressed hope this would be the "first step" toward resolving differences which led to organized labor's boycott of mobilization program five weeks ago. Wilson, the board chairman, was the principal target of labor attacks on the way defense planning was being handled.

Others named to the board were:

Agriculture—Ray B. Wiser, president of the California Farm Bureau federation, Gridley, Calif.; D. W. ## Lament Closing Of La Prensa

Scores of American flags flew at half staff today as a sign of mourning for La Prensa, the renowned Argentine newspaper closed by the Peron government.

The move, started by the Washington National Press club, spread quickly to newspapers and radio stations across the nations.

The club's governors charged that La Prensa had been suppressed in what they called a blow to freedom of the press everywhere.
Clarence B. Hanson, president of the Alabama Press Association and publisher of the Birmingham News, called on all papers in his stat. to join in the demonstration.

Papers and radio stations in Miami, Washington, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Memphis and elsewhere lowered the flags above their plants. At the request of the Corning, N. Y., Evening Leader, Mayor Howard Cole of Corning ordered all city flags lowered.

Teen-Agers in School Strike

MT. MORRIS, Mich., April 6—(P)—A hundred 'teen-age' students struck today after their superintendent told a married pupil who is pregnant she'd have to quit classes.

The strikers, about one fourth of the student body in the local senior and junior high school, said the superintendent was discriminating against all married students. There are five brides attending classes.

Superintendent E. L. Clark said he had told only one married girl,
"who obviously is pregnant," she would have to study at home.

He said he told the other four married girls they could continue to attend classes if they brought certificates from physicians that they were not pregnant.

U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol recommended the 15-year sentence for Greenglass in "tolerance for penitence, contriteness, remorse and belated truth."

Greenglass testified he stole Atom bomb secrets at the government experimental station at Los Alamos, N. M., and turned them over to the Rosenbergs for transmission to Russia.

The former soldier was sentenced by Federal Judge Irving I.
Kaufman, the same judge who sentenced the Rosenbergs, and who also ordered Morton Sobell, a fourth defendant, to serve 30 years.

Greenglass was the only one of the four to plead guilty.

The judge made no recommendation for an eventual parole for Greenglass.

The pudgy Greenglass, standing with hands clasped behind his back, showed no emotion.

He remained silently, in the same place where his sister heard her death sentence yesterday, until marshals led him to a rear exit.

Greenglass was wearing a double-breasted brown suit, white shirt and brown and yellow neck-tie.

His wife was seated in the first row among the spectators packing the courtroom.

Judge Kaufman said he considered the 15-year sentence "a just sentence."

"You helped us strike a death blow to the trafficking of our military secrets by foreign agents," the judge said.

Habeas Corpus For Carolla

Prosecutor Says
New Warrant
May Be Sought

Charles Carolla, 40, 3934 The Pascoe, picked up in connection with the robbery of the Mid-Continent Wholesale Co., 421 West Main, last February, walked away from the Jackson county Court House in Kansas City Thursday afternoon a free man, temporarily. A technicality about the endorsement of a warrant issued to the sheriff of Pettis county, resulted in his release on a habeas corpus.

Carolla was ordered discharged from the custody of the Jackson County sheriff after a hearing before the Kansas City Court of Appeals. Carolla was apprehended April 3 in Clay County by Jackson County deputies on a warrant issued to Sheriff John F. Taylor of Pettis County. The appellate court held that Jackson County authorities had no authority to serve the warrant because it was not properly endorsed by a Jackson County magistrate.

Was First Denied
An application for a writ was denied Wednesday in the circuit court.

The absence of Sheriff Taylor, the only authority who could serve the warrant permitted Car-olla to leave the courthouse unmolested.

Carolla, a mechanic for Trans World Airlines, was sought by Pettis county authorities in connection with the theft of Peabody cigarettes valued at $2,000 from the warehouse of the Mid-Continent Wholesale company Sedalia. Mike Bogutski, Pettis County prosecutor, said that the warrant was issued on the basis of statements by two North Kansas City businessmen that they had purchased the cigarettes from Carolla.

The cigarettes were found in North Kansas City by the state patrolmen.

Isadore Rich attorney for Car-olla, contended that the arrest was illegal and that Carolla was working when the theft occurred.
Rich offered to prove through testimony of other air line employees that time cards and employment records would disclose that Carolla was not in Sedalia.

Prisoner Is Discharged

"Gentlemen," Judge Samuel A.
Dew said after the hearing "The court has considered the matter, and I advise exhaustively. Our conclusion is that the sheriff of Jackson County had no authority to serve the warrant in question.
The prisoner is ordered discharged."

Carolla had been held in the county jail.

Bogutski, this morning, said he would have another warrant issued as soon as he heard from Prosecuting Attorney Fox of Jackson County. Bogutski indicated Carolla would be questioned by the Jackson county prosecuting attorney regarding the robbery.

In his conversation Bogutski indicated he felt there was enough information for issuing another warrant and having Carolla brought to Pettis County for a preliminary hearing.

Truck Drivers Assessed Fines

Two truck drivers who were in collision about 12:45 p. m. today on Highway 65, six miles north of Sedalia, were fined $20 and costs each by Magistrate W. W.
Blain. Both pleaded guilty. They were charged with careless and imprudent driving. The men were involved in a collision on a bridge, near the Bothwell school.

Jesse Realmuto, Springfield
truck driver and was headed south,
and Donald Coots, Jefferson City, was driving a 1940 Chevrolet truck and was going north when the accident occurred. It was estimated $100 damages resulted to the Chevrolet while the International tractor-trailer had about $350 damages.

The drivers were arrested by State Highway Troopers Pete
Stohr and Glenn Means.

Britain Is Still Tightening Up as To Its Economy

position in Britain is that all political parties are united on carrying out the rearmament program. The program isn't a political issue at all, despite the ceaseless efforts of the conservatives to cause the downfall of the Socialist government.

The British standard of living has become very low. This isn't a new development, as I see it,
but one which really began back in World War I and has grown worse with increasing time.

Had Lotfy Standard

The country had a high standard up to the first world war.
It had been living on the bequests of its ancestors, so to speak. It still was a major manufacturing nation by virtue of the fact it could import raw materials from many non-industrial lands, and having fabricated the materials, re-export them with good profit.

The first world war broke Brit-tain's economic back. The conflict forced other nations to manufacture their own necessities. And England's ancestral investments went by the board.

These days the people are giving up about 40 per cent of their income in taxation of various sorts. The taxation is so high that it is almost impossible to increase it without discouraging enterprise.

Many articles are heavily taxed.
For example a package of American cigarettes costs about 75 cents, and the Briton's "fag" is an essential to his way of life.
Some wounded smoker, with a pendant for figures, has calculated that if a person had no other income it would require 4,000 pounds (about $11,200 at today's rate of exchange) invested at 2 1/2 per cent interest, to enable that person to smoke
one package per day.

Another example is the weekly meat ration. That is eight cents worth — the equivalent of a small lamp chop. Butter, tea and milk aren't close to rationing, but Children do get preferential treatment as they should.

Despite the tough conditions the health of the population seems good. Experts wonder, however, whether the physical stamina would be the same in event of war.

In any case, rearmament is going on. Some nine per cent of the national income was spent on national defense in 1950, and the authorities figure this may be increased to 12 per cent in 1951.

It's a stiff rate of insurance the democracies are paying for security against Bolshevism.

Mickey Cohen Is Indicted

LOS ANGELES, April 6—(P)—
The government today accused gambler Mickey Cohen of evading payment on a quarter of a million dollars income tax in three years.

A federal grand jury indictment alleged that Cohen's income for 1946-7-8 was $318,456, but that he reported only $87,417—a discrepancy of $231,039.

The jury had been going into Cohen's payments in recent years since the U. S. Senate Crime committee, headed by Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), drew admissions from him in recent hearings that he had borrowed some 300-000 in recent years with practically no security. Cohen said he had no comment. He recently told reporters:

"I'm clean (legal). But they'll indict me because the word is out to 'get Mickey Cohen.'"

Indicted with Cohen was his attractive wife, Lavonne.

They were charged with evading a portion of federal taxes on the income for 1946, 1947 and 1948. Authorities said she was named chiefly because she signed WHT returns with her husband.

There were five counts of evasion and a sixth accusing Cohen of making a false and fugitive statement to a treasury Tax sluths have been going over his income for months.

Cars Are Damaged In A Collision

Minor damage resulted in a collision of two cars at Broadway and Ohio at 11:55 a. m. today.
No injuries resulted.

The cars involved were a 1949
Ford driven by Mrs. Marie Bod-denhamer, 1203 East Ninth and a 1949 Buick car driven by Javel Welch, 1271 South Broadway. Both cars were headed south on Ohio and the collision occurred when Wench started to drive around the Ford.

Police made an investigation.

Suit Is Filed Alleging Injuries

Mrs. Ruth Jack, route 3, Sedalia, today filed suit for $10,000 against the City of Sedalia, the Sedalia Water Co., Homer C., and Minnie Elam, 1501 South Missouri, as a result of injuries received in falling into a water meter.

The petition alleges the plaintiff fell into a water box on the parking front of the residence of Homer C. and Minnie Elam, and received painful and permanent injuries. The accident occurred on January 20, 1951 according to the petition.

Bamborg and Bogutski are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Presented With Christmas Cactus Blooms
Mrs. Leonard C. Sigman, route
2, Sedalia, sent the Democrat today a newsroom bouquet of blooms from a large Christmas cactus she has.

Mrs. Sigman stated that the cactus had bloomed three times in the last six months. It bloomed at Thanksgiving, again at Christmas and a third time at Easter.
It is still blooming with several of the large red flowers scattered over the big plant.

C. Rafferty Attacked—By 'Moose' Greer

Victim Beaten
With Lead Pipe;
No Reason Given

Claude "Moose" Greer, today, was charged with assault with intent to kill Claude Rafferty as a result of an attack about 6:30
Thursday at the Rafferty home, 1514 South Ohio, where Greer had a room. Before Magistrate W. W. Blain, this afternoon, Greer notified the court he wanted a preliminary hearing and would not attempt to make bond
if one was set.

Judge Blain set the preliminary hearing for 9:30 a. m. Saturday.
Greer according to the information made an attack on Rafferty in which the latter received severe head injuries which included lacerations and bruises. Rafferty claimed Greer struck him several times with a two-foot length of one-inch gas pipe.

Greer had no apparent reason to hit Rafferty. The latter thought of Greer as a good friend, according to a report given Sheriff John Taylor.

Marks on Rafferty's head indicated that he received at least three blows from the pipe Greer wielded. Two of these hits lacer-ated Rafferty's scalp; one directly down the center and the other on the left side; the third raised a large knot.

September 2, 1944 Greer was involved in another fracas in which his brother James Bishop Greer was killed. "Moose" went to trial at that time but was acquitted.

According to Rafferty's wife, Fred called her husband to his upstairs apartment where he assaulted him. She said she saw Greer swinging the pipe at her husband but was unable to stop the attack.

Sheriff John Taylor and Jesse Goode of the Sedalia police department were called to the scene.
They sent Rafferty to the Bothwell hospital in the Gillespie ambulance and arrested Greer. He charging him with assault. Greer was placed in the "big four cell"
of the County Jail where he will remain

Dr. Rutledge Ends Life in Automobile

Appeal on 70-year Sentence For Murder Failed

HOUSTON, Tex., April 6.—(P)—Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., defendant in one of America's most sensational murder trials, was found dead Thursday in an automobile, a hose leading from the exhaust pipe into the car.

Only yesterday, his 70-year sentence was confirmed by the Iowa supreme court.

The Houston Post said it was learned that the doctor yesterday had taken his wife to a friend's home, telling her he was going to a hotel to "stay away from newspaper reporters."

Sometime during today, the post said it had learned, the wife received a letter from her husband. The contents were not immediately divulged. Mrs. Rutledge was reported under a sedative and unaware of her husband's death.

Body Slumped Over Wheel
Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern said the body was found slumped over the steering wheel. Passersby thought the man merely was asleep until one took a second glance and discovered Dr. Rutledge was dead.

Dr. Rutledge and his tall, statuesque wife, Sydney Goodrich Rutledge, have been missing from their home. One witness said they had been seen shortly before the confirmation of his sentence was handed down. However, the doctor's mother said they had been gone several days.

Mrs. Rutledge testified at the trial that she was forced to submit to Hattman after a boat ride and drinking party in St. Louis, in July, 1948.

The defense argued Dr. Rutledge was defending the sanctity of his home after a "venomous viper" had forced the doctor's wife into intimacy.

The doctor and his wife moved to Houston after he served 279 days of his term at Iowa's Fort Madison state penitentiary and then was released under $40,000 bond last May pending his appeal.

Dr. Rutledge was sentenced in May of 1949 after one of the most publicized trials in recent United States history. Details of the seductions were told in court.

Hattman, 27, a St. Louis airport engineer and a bachelor, was stabbed to death in a Cedar Rapids hotel room on Dec. 14, 1948. Rutledge said he followed Hattman to Cedar Rapids and begged him to leave Mrs. Rutledge alone.

The doctor claimed he fought in self-defense after Hattman attacked him. The state claimed Rutledge lay in wait for Hattman, killed and robbed him.

Houston is the doctor's old home town. He opened a children's clinic here shortly after he was released from prison.

Many May Now Receive Benefits

Many people in this service area who are now entitled to monthly old-age or survivors insurance benefit payments have not applied for them; according to a statement today by Scott Webber, manager of the Sedalia social security office at 511 South Ohio.

He urges everyone who made inquiry before September 1950 to come to his office. This applies especially to retired workers over 65 whose previous claim was disallowed because they had not been employed long enough in jobs covered by social security.

The reason why many of these people are now eligible, and can qualify for old-age benefit payments if they file new claims, is the "New Start" provision of the amended social security law.

While being "insured" is still measured in the unit of a quarter-year in which the worker had at least $50 of pay in a job under the system, the number of units or "calendar quarters" required for insured status has been reduced.

For example, a retired worker, age 65 or over, who came to the social security office, and was told that he could not qualify for benefit payments because he did not have enough "quarters of coverage," should come to the office again. If he worked in jobs protected by social security for as little as a year and a half, he can now qualify if he files a claim. Moreover, he may have worked in the job or jobs at any time since the beginning of 1937, and the jobs need not have been consecutive.

In this vicinity, there are many people now 65 or over, who worked at one time or another after 1937 in jobs covered by social security. "Many of them do not realize that they can now have old-age benefit payments because they do not know that requirements have been reduced," says Mr. Webber.

He asks all newspapers to pass on word of this important change in the social security law to anyone they think might be affected: "Just tell them to get in touch with us at 511 South Ohio, Sedalia, Mo."

Reward For The Dissatisfied Tithers

SANTA ANA, Calif. — (P) — There's $100 on deposit in a bank here which can be claimed by anyone. Anyone, that is, who tries tithing for one year and finds that God does not keep his promise to take adequate care of the giver. In five years there have been no claimants.

The Rev. DeWitt Safford, who deposited the money, recently renewed the offer and promised to include the five years' interest.

A tither is one who gives 10 per cent of his income to the church. Safford reports his church has 178 tithers out of a communicant membership of 481. None of them, he says, has shown an interest in his $100.

Singapore Fights High Food Costs
SINGAPORE (P) — A Pan-Malayan Consumers' Association to fight high prices both here and in the Federation of Malaya is being planned. The Singapore Consumers' Association, backing the move, already is warring on profiteers and urging people not to buy at stores which are steadily boosting prices.

Costs of foodstuffs generally have gone up from 200 to 300 per cent in Singapore and Malaya in the last six months.

More than 85 per cent of the world's supply of coffee comes from Latin America—mostly from Brazil.

Elmer Eels in Sales Talk

Elmer Eels, salesman of this area, gave the outstanding speech of the evening at the speech club which meets every Friday evening in the public library.

His subject "Telephone Your Order Now" gave his hearers a new and unique method of salesmanship. As Mr. Eels called it, it is more like service selling. Last Friday he installed a telephone in his car and as he called on his out-of-town customers he told them that anytime they need anything, he was as close to them as their telephone. Wherever he was he would get the call immediately as soon as he could reach a post office, their order would be in the mail. Even if his car were parked in front of his home, he had it wired so that when the car telephone would ring, the horn of his car would blow and he would know that the 'phone was ringing.

Along with Mr. Eels' talk there were several others given last Friday evening by members of this recently organized speech club. There is no charge to any member at any time and visitors are welcome at the meetings. Many interesting topics are discussed by members and at the close of each talk, other members offer constructive criticism.

The meeting tonight will be held in the auditorium on the second floor of the public library at 7 p.m.

MacArthur Applauds Demand For Use Of Chiang's Troops

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur kicked over the administration traces again by applauding a Republican leader's demand for the use of Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist troops to open a second front against the Communists in Asia.

He declared the demand made by Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, Republican leader of the House, is logical and in accord with the American tradition of "meeting force with maximum counter force."

The administration is opposed to use of -Chiang Kai-Shek's troops, now penned up on Formosa. The official position here is that they are needed for the defense of Formosa. Officials also say they want to prevent a spread of the present war beyond Korea.

In a letter to Rep. Martin, MacArthur declared:

"It seems strangely difficult for some to realize that here in Asia is where the Communist conspirators have elected to make their play for global conquest, and that we have joined the issue thus raised on the battlefield; that here we fight Europe's war with arms, while the diplomats there still fight it with words; that if we lose the war to Communism in Asia the fall of Europe is inevitable. Win it and Europe most probably would avoid war and yet preserve freedom. As you point out, we must win. There is no substitute for victory."

This placed MacArthur squarely in conflict with the theory held by administration officials that Europe, not Asia, is the major theater in the world-wide conflict with Communism.

MacArthur's letter was in reply to a letter from Martin, asking for the general's reaction to Martin's Brooklyn speech Sept. 12. At that time the Republican leader called for a second front on the Chinese mainland and use of Chiang's forces to set it up.

Martin's Letter Personal
Martin's letter to the general was marked personal, but the general's reply carried no such restriction. Martin read it to the House during debate on the draft UMT bill.

It was the latest in a series of developments showing a marked conflict of thinking between the administration here and the American high command in Tokyo. What the administration would do about it was not immediately clear. But some officials did not conceal their resentment, feeling that MacArthur was trying to go over the President's head to carry his case to the people.

In the midst of the furore created by the MacArthur letter here, the London Daily Telegraph came out with a dispatch saying the general believes United Nations forces in Korea could defeat the Chinese Communists if politicians would "take the wraps off" an authorize his forces to do the job.

Bucky Harris Expects His Team to Climb

By Jack Hand
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 6.—(AP)—Manager Bucky Harris rates his Washington Senators a better fifth place club than last year. That just about tells the story.

Harris, of course, aims toward the distant first division. Every body does in the spring. But he is realistic about the 25-game gap between fourth and fifth last season. Only a complete collapse up front could ease Washington into the select four.

"We're going to have better balance," said Harris, once "the boy wonder" but now senior manager in the league in point of service.

"I think the race is among New York, Boston and Cleveland. A few breaks and any one of the three could win it."

Catching is the Senators' weakest department. Unless Clark Griffith makes a deal before opening day the club will go into the season without a proven first line receiver. Mickey Grasso (.287) a fine rookie last season, is the nearest approach. He's No. 1 at the moment.

The infield should be stronger than last season with the first baseman, Mickey Vernon (.281) and second baseman Cass Michaels (.266) available from the start.

Eddie Yost (.295) at third and Sam Dente (.239) at short round out the infield. Yost had an exceptional season in 1950 when he was rated right behind Detroit's George Kell among the league's third basemen.

Infielders Gene Verble, drafted from Atlanta where he hit .279 and Willy Miranda, a Cuban rookie who batted .248 at Chattanooga, have impressed Harris.

The outfield is Harris' strong point with Gil Coan (.303) in left, Irv Noren (.295) in center and Sam Mele (.274) in right. Mike McCormick, a veteran National Leaguer who hit only .232 with the Chicago White Sox last summer, and Sherry Robertson (.260) are the reserves.

Bob Kuzava (9-10) can be the ace of the pitching staff. The 27-year-old lefthander is considered one of the top young southpaws in the league.

Harris will start Kuzava, Gene Bearden (4-8) Sid Hudson (14-14) Sandalo Consuegra (7-8) and Al Sime (4-5) or Conrado Marrero (6-10). Mickey Harris (5-9) again will be the relief man with Joe Haynes (7-5) available for spot duty.

Julio Moreno (1-1), Floyd Ross (0-1) and Ed Davis, a kid from Charlotte, N. C. are others with a chance.

Winning Crown

MIAMI, Fla., April 6.—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson pounded out a 10-round unanimous decision over tough and aggressive Holly Mims of Washington, D. C., last night in his first fight since winning the middleweight championship.

The 23-year-old Mims, who had to drink several glasses of water at the weighing in ceremony, came in over the 160-pound limit, opened an old cut over Robinson's left eye in the first round and surprised the champion several times by coming out with a crouch and scoring with left and rights to the jaw.

Ray scored his only knockdown in the second round with a right and left to the head but Mims was not seriously damaged. Mims was the aggressor all the way.

Robinson weighed 159½ and Mims 160½.

Feller to be on Mound Today

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 6.—(AP)—Bob Feller gets a chance today to show he is in shape to go the distance against a major league foe and win. Two other Cleveland Indians righthanders have done it in the tribe's last two games.

Larry Jansen will be pitching today for the New York Giants whom the Tribe beat 6-5 yesterday in the first of an 11-game, eastward bound barnstorming series.

Early Wynn gave up all five giant runs in the first frame, but blanked the New Yorkers after that. Mike Garcia was the first Tribe hurler to go full nine innings when he beat the New York Yankees in Tucson Tuesday 6-3.

Second baseman George Stirm, Weiss and shortstop Merrill Combs, acquired last Sunday from the St. Louis Browns, joined the Indians at Houston yesterday.

Trappers Turn to Farms
THE PAS, Man.—(AP)—Northern Manitoba's Indians, hereditary trappers and hunters, are going in for farming. The program will begin in The Pas area this spring when 300 of 600 acres of Reserve land in one district will be cleared by tractor and plowed. As this area becomes farms, another 300 acres will be broken and cultivated.

In addition, Indian land between the Saskatchewan and Carrot rivers will be leased to white farmers for a few years. Then it will be taken over for Indian farming.

Charity For Sinners

One of the most revealing incidents of Christ's life was His defense of the woman discovered in adultery. There were plenty ready to join in meting out the traditional punishment of death by stoning. But Christ, who hated sin but not sinners, challenged the woman's critics by inviting those without sin themselves to cast the first stone.

The crowd, we are told, slowly melted away. They remain in our memories as typifying all those who are ever ready to denounce the weak and erring, but are sadly lacking when it comes to giving them the understanding and encouragement that would help to redeem them.

Even "good" people may be deficient in the oil of "sweet charity." Sin is always abhorrent. But the unduly righteous seem to forget sometimes that when Christ spoke of love of neighbor, He was thinking of the unworthy as well as the virtuous and well-behaved. He never said it was any man's right to indulge in intemperate denunciations of another, however flagrant his crimes. His principle was that no one should dare to criticize his neighbor unless his own heart was filled with compassion and generosity.

Criticism of others is justified only when it is tempered with charity. Parents scold their children for their misdeeds, but they do so in the spirit of pure love. This is the same impulse that should govern anyone who professes to be shocked and alarmed by the wrong-doing of others. Every rebuke should be accompanied by an inner prayer that the culprit will be inspired to amend his ways.

Abusive tirades, bitter demands for punishment, outright condemnations are the self-proclaiming signs of the negative critic. They are often the hallmark also of the hypocritically self-righteous. They serve only to hurt and degrade the wrongdoer, who might, with just one word of understanding and love, be stirred to repentance and reform.

This was the case on Calvary, when the heart of Dismas was moved to sorrow by the patience and compassion of Him whom he had so often outraged.

Sunday School Lesson

The Bible's Story Of Beginnings
By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

Suppose an intelligent person, who had never read the stories of beginnings in the early chapters of Genesis, should come across a reference to a "tree of the knowledge of good and evil," and an account of a serpent speaking, would he not in the very nature of the writing realize that the writer was speaking in a symbolic, rather than in a literal way?

One thing about the Bible that many people forget is that it is an Eastern book. The daily language and literature of the East has always been full of figures and symbols very different from much of our prosaic, Western liberalism. The prophets frequently used figures of speech and symbols to illustrate and express truth. The parables of Jesus were true to life and revealing in the truth concerning God and man that Jesus sought to impart, but they did not depend upon the incidents described having actually happened.

It was "a certain man" who went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and it might have been any man so far as the truth and the teaching were concerned. The parables are stories and teachings for today and not just stories of something that happened long ago. Their significance is not as historic incidents but as spiritual tales, or parables, with universality of application.

The great teacher under whom I studied these things years ago interpreted the symbolism of the early Genesis stories in his own way.

Oryx Hunting Restricted
CAIRO—(P)—The hunting and killing of the oryx, or kudu, has been forbidden by a government decree in Saudi Arabia, the Arab News Agency reports from Hofuf (Saudi Arabia). The decree was issued to protect this nearly extinct animal which can only be found in Arabia today, ANA's dispatch adds.

The oryx is said to be quite ferocious. It has two straight horns from 25 to 30 inches long, and has been seen to charge its enemies at great speed. Bedouins commonly believe that its flesh has unusual healing powers. Some swear that it helps to mend broken bones in a short time.

Reds Assail Anti-Semitism
VIENNA—(P)—Anti-Semitic hooliganism still exists in Communist Romania. The Bucharest newspaper, "Biața Noua," said: "In Galatz, a group of seven anti-Semitic hooligans attacked some citizens, most of whom were Jewish workers. Although they succeeded in getting away, the Fascist hooligans were identified and sent before the courts."

The report said the seven men were sentenced to prison terms ranging from 18 months to three months.

The United Nations has estimated that world population in 1949 was 2,351,000,000 — and growing rapidly.

Treason Alters History

Court Sentences Atomic Spy Team To Electric Chair

NEW YORK, April 5—(P)—A wartime husband and wife atom spy team was sentenced to death today—the first Americans in the nation's history so doomed for such treachery.

They are Julius Rosenberg and his wife Ethel, who ferreted out A-bomb secrets for a Russian-bossed international spy ring.

Military courts have sentenced native American spies to death in the past, but a civil court never has.

A third defendant, radar expert Morton Sobell, was convicted with the Rosenbergs. But he escaped the death penalty and got 30 years in prison instead.

In a grave but stinging lecture, sentencing Judge Irving R. Kaufman said the Rosenbergs' treason—in his own opinion—led to the war in Korea.

The result, he added, has been 50,000 American casualties already. Moreover, he said, their crime may yet doom to flaming atomic death millions more innocent citizens.

"By your betrayal you undoubtedly have altered the course of history to the disadvantage of our country," Judge Kaufman told the Rosenbergs.

As the federal judge's solemn words echoed through the courtroom, clock bells outside tolled the hour of noon. Their chiming rang above his voice. The rest of the court was deathly silent.

Security Must Remain Inviolable
The death sentence, Judge Kaufman said, must "demonstrate with finality that his nation's security must remain inviolate—that traffic in military secrets, whether promoted by slavish devotion to a foreign ideology or by a desire for monetary gains, must cease."

He set the week of May 21 for the executions. Since the sentence was pronounced in New York, the Rosenbergs will go to the electric chair in line with state custom.

However, both Rosenbergs have said they will appeal their jury conviction of last week. Such an appeal could delay their execution for many months and might even save their lives if successful.

The third defendant, Morton Sobell, 34, drew the maximum prison sentence—30 years. Judge Kaufman—admitting Sobell's lesser guilt—nevertheless recommended that he not be paroled and that he serve the full term.

Greenglass Awaits Verdict
Judge Kaufman put off until tomorrow the sentencing of Mrs. Rosenberg's brother, David Greenglass, 29-year-old former Army sergeant.

He confessed his part in the traitorous wartime spy plot and became a star government witness against his sister. His witness stand evidence was a dramatic highlight of the trial, pitting as it did brother against sister.

Greenglass said the Rosenbergs talked him into turning over atom bomb secrets when he was a soldier stationed at Los Alamos, N. M., in 1944. Los Alamos was the cradle of America's top secret A-bomb program during the late war years.

Judge Kaufman urged that Congress stiffen the penalties for peacetime spying in this tense era of the A-bomb and the developing H-bomb.

The present peacetime maximum sentence of 20 years is not enough, he said.

1917 Law Used To Prosecute
The Rosenbergs and Sobell were prosecuted under a 1917 law which provides the maximum penalty for a convicted spy of death or imprisonment up to 30 years. This deals solely with spying in wartime.

Ex-Convict Held

Tired and unkempt, Robert Phillips, ex-convict, is shown after being brought to the McAlester, Okla., police station Wednesday. He was found with Jackie Parris, 16-year-old girl, who had been missing since Sunday when she and her boy friend were abducted by a man at a skating rink. (AP Wirephoto)

Phillips Says He's Innocent

Ex-Convict Pleas Insanity To Counts Of Kidnapping Girl

McALESTER, Okla., April 5—(P)—A 23-year-old ex-convict, claiming the offer of a court-appointed attorney, today pleaded innocent "by reason of insanity" to two charges of kidnapping.

Earlier, Robert Phillips, McAlester, was charged with kidnapping Jackie Parris, 16, and her skating date, Bill Coghlin, 17, last Sunday night. The boy was released several hours later.

Early yesterday a posse rescued the girl and captured Phillips in the San Bois mountains 35 miles northeast of here.

Girl Prisoner 50 Hours
She said Phillips had kept her prisoner for 50 hours.

Pittsburgh County Attorney S. F. Brown said one of the kidnap charges was drawn to come with in a section of Oklahoma statutes fixing death in the electric chair as maximum punishment.

The charge sets out that "Robert Phillips was seeking an advantage from the said Jackie Parris for the purpose of violating her chastity and virtue."

After a conference with the girl and her parents, Latimer County Attorney Wayne Russell said he would file no additional charges despite her earlier story that Phillips had raped her.

Phillips admitted to officers after his capture that he disrobed the girl and attempted to rape her but denied accomplishing the act. After an examination of the girl, physicians said they found no evidence she actually had been violated.

Phillips Has Right To Counsel
At Phillips' arraignment, Peace Justice Thomas explained to the court that he had a right to legal counsel and could delay his plea for 24 hours.

"I plead the same way on both charges—not guilty by reason of insanity," he said in a firm voice.

Hannibal Teachers Receive Raise
HANNIBAL, Mo., April 5—(P)—The Hannibal board of education has approved a salary increase of $200 a year for 140 Hannibal grade and high school teachers. The boost is effective July 1.

The increase will total $28,000 a year, the board announced.

MacArthur Applauds Demand For Use Of Chiang's Troops

WASHINGTON, April 5—(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur kicked off the administration officials that Europe, not Asia, is the major theater in the world-wide conflict with Communism.

MacArthur's letter was in reply to a letter from Martin, asking for the general's reaction to Martin's Brookline speech Sept. 12. At that time the Republican leader called for a second front on the Chinese mainland and use of Chiang's forces to set it up.

Martin's Letter Personal
Martin's letter to the general was marked personal, but the general's reply carried no such restriction. Martin read it to the House during debate on the draft UMT bill.

It was the latest in a series of developments showing a marked conflict of thinking between the administration here and the American high command in Tokyo.

What the administration would do about it was not immediately clear. But some officials did not conceal their resentment, feeling that MacArthur was trying to go over the President's head to carry his case to the people.

In the midst of the furor created by the MacArthur letter here, the London Daily Telegraph came out with a dispatch saying the general believes United Nations forces in Korea could defeat the Chinese Communists if they preserve freedom. As you point out, we must win. There is no substitute for victory."

US Does Its Share

President Praises Senate Resolution Sending Ike Troops

WASHINGTON, April 5—(P)—President Truman praised the Senate's troops-for-Europe resolution today as new evidence of this country's determination to do its full share in defending the non-Communist world.

At the same time he side-stepped a row with the Senate over its attempt to curb his power to put more American troops in the new combined Western Europe army in the future.

"Our main task now," Mr. Truman said, "is to get on with the job of building our strength and help to build the strength of the free world—a job which we all agree should continue to be carried out through collaboration by the executive and the legislative branches of the government."

The President issued a formal statement commenting on yesterday's Senate resolution which (1) endorsed his plan to put four more U. S. divisions into the allied army, and (2) called on him not to commit any more ground troops to Europe without the approval of Congress.

This second proviso isn't binding on the President. His supporters in the Senate fought it bitterly. However, contending it was an effort to tie the President's hands and would be interpreted abroad as a sign of American indecision.

Mr. Truman, who has said in the past that he can send troops anywhere he thinks they are needed, carefully avoided the issue today.

Congress Will Be Consulted
He said that since the days of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Congress always has been consulted on foreign policy. And he said that practice will continue.

As he did in last week's news conference, Mr. Truman said the danger of a third world war is as great today as it has been at any time in the past four years.

Newsmen asked about yesterday's speech in which House Speaker Rayburn said the United States stands in "terrible danger," with non-Chinese Communist troops among the Red forces massing in Manchuria.

All Mr. Truman would say was that the speaker is a truthful man.

Then what about yesterday's prediction by Senator Connally (D-Tex) that there won't be a world war this year?

The President said he hoped to see the world war never come. That's what we're working for, he said, and that's why it's more necessary than ever that our defense program should be carried out.

How About Bombing Manchuria
"Has General (Douglas) MacArthur been authorized to bomb Chinese Communist bases in Manchuria?" a reporter asked.

Mr. Truman said that was a tactical question and he couldn't answer it.

In another formal statement the President urged Congress to pre-promptly all the funds necessary to make the Voice of America "a world-wide network of radio broadcasting facilities."

"These facilities are needed," he said, "to help us win the battle for the minds and hearts of men. They would help us hold our own in the vital communications field in the event of war."

Mr. Truman said he stands behind yesterday's White House statement pulling the rug from under a magazine article written by his old friend and biographer Jonathan Daniels. But he said Daniels still is welcome at the White House.

Two Injured As Tornadoes Rip Oklahoma
By The Associated Press
Tornadoes began their traditional spring operations in Oklahoma Friday afternoon, dipping into two rural communities to destroy school and farm property. Two persons were injured.

The hardest blow was received by the Bridge Creek consolidated schools. The twister destroyed two one-story brick buildings, occupied by 125 students, at Bridge Creek.

Another twister took a smack at the Pleasant Valley School community five miles north of Norman. Considerable damage resulted to farm properties.

Injured in the Bridge Creek tornado were Jean Dewbre, 16, a student, and Mrs. Mabel Bottoms, a teacher. The girl suffered severe head and leg cuts. The teacher sustained severe gashes on the legs.

Bridge Creek is located about six miles east and four miles south of Tuttle in Grady county, some 20 miles southwest of Oklahoma City.

Supt. W. N. Russell estimated damage at $100,000 and said "it was a miracle the kids escaped death or serious injury in the devastation."

The tornado struck shortly before 1:30 p. m., without warning. Russell said he was in a study hall and glanced out of the window to see the front porch of his home next door blown away. A second later the buildings were hit.

The roofs and walls of both caved in and the air was filled with flying debris.

Five barns in the area were blown down. Heavy rain and hail preceded the destructive winds.

Jasper County Starts Clean-Up
JOPLIN, Mo., April 5—(P)—A two-story brick house described as a "house of prostitution" was padlocked today in a move started by Jasper county's clean-up grand jury.

Judge Walter E. Bailey signed a temporary injunction closing the establishment three miles north of Joplin, Mo. The injunction was asked by Robert L. Hyder, assistant attorney general assigned to aid the jury.

Admits Ozarks Slaying

Kenneth Essary, shy Ozarks farm youth, was being held in the Marshfield, Mo., jail in connection with the slaying Tuesday of four neighbors. Prosecutor John Hosmer said Essary had admitted the slayings, saying "they were good neighbors but they didn't like me." The victims were Mr. and Mrs. William T. Shockley, their daughter and Shockley's mother. (AP Wirephoto)

C. Rafferty Attacked—By 'Moose' Greer

Victim Beaten With Lead Pipe; No Reason Given

Claude Rafferty received serious head injuries and lacerations Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock when Claude "Moose" Greer, a boarder in the Rafferty home, 1514 South Ohio avenue, struck him several times with a two-foot length of one-inch gas pipe. The incident occurred at the above address.

Greer had no apparent reason to hit Rafferty; the latter thought of Greer as a good friend.

Marks on Rafferty's head indicated that he received at least three blows from the pipe Greer wielded. Two of these his lacerated Rafferty's scalp; one directly down the center and the other on the left side; the third raised a large knot.

Several years ago Greer was involved in another fracas in which his brother, "Monk" Greer was killed. "Moose" went to trial at that time but was acquitted.

According to Rafferty's wife, Greer called her husband to his upstairs apartment where he assaulted him. She said she saw Greer swinging the pipe at her husband but was unable to stop the attack.

Sheriff John Taylor and Jesse Goodie of the Sedalia police department were called to the scene. They sent Rafferty to the Bothwell hospital in the Gillespie ambulance and arrested Greer, charging him with assault. Greer was placed in the "big four cell" of the County Jail where he will remain until he is arraigned in Magistrate court today.

Greer allegedly admitted the attack upon his "friend" as he was placed in his cell.

Rafferty was treated at the hospital by Dr. John E. Lamy, and later returned to his home.

At the hospital Mrs. Rafferty said that she and her husband planned to press formal charges against Greer Friday.

Two Plead Guilty To Theft Of Hogs

Dr. Robert Rutledge Commits Suicide After Appeal Fails

HOUSTON, Tex., April 5—(P)—Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., defendant in one of America's most sensational murder trials, was found dead today in an automobile, a hose leading from the exhaust pipe into the car.

Only yesterday, his 70-year sentence was confirmed by the Iowa supreme court.

The Houston Post said it was learned that the doctor yesterday had taken his wife to a friend's home, telling her he was going to a hotel to "stay away from newspaper reporters."

Sometime during today, the post said it had learned, the wife received a letter from her husband. The contents were not immediately divulged. Mrs. Rutledge was reported under a sedative and unaware of her husband's death.

Body Slumped Over Wheel
Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern said the body was found slumped over the steering wheel. Passersby thought the man merely was asleep until one took a second glance and discovered Dr. Rutledge was dead.

Dr. Rutledge and his tall, stocky wife, Sydney Goodman Rutledge, have been missing from their home. One witness said they had been seen shortly before the confirmation of his sentence was handed down. However, the doctor's mother said they had been gone several days.

Mrs. Rutledge testified at the trial that she was forced to submit to Hattman after a boat ride and drinking party in St. Louis, in July, 1948.

The defense argued Dr. Rutledge was defending the sanctity of his home after a "venomous viper" had forced the doctor's wife into intimacy.

The doctor and his wife moved to Houston after he served 279 days of his term at Iowa's Fort Madison state penitentiary and then was released under a $40,000 bond last May pending his appeal.

UN Tanks Smash Way Eight Miles Past Old Border

TOKYO, Friday, April 6—(P)—Allied forces rammed deeply north of the old South Korean border on a broad front Thursday to call the Chinese hand on the Reds' expected massive spring offensive.

One American armored column stabbed nearly eight miles north of parallel 38 along the main highway towards the Red assembly point of Kumhwa in the west-central sector. Resistance was light to heavy. This task force reached Chail, about 15 air miles southwest of Kumhwa. It was the most daring penetration since United Nations forces rebounded in January from a general withdrawal.

The Chinese and Korean Reds have bunched an estimated 500,000 on the western and central fronts for a new major drive expected to start during the rainy season this month.

There was an unconfirmed report—revival of a month-old field intelligence account, that some 3,000 Russian-supplied planes were in readiness at Manchurian airstrips to back up such an offensive.

The American thrust up the road toward Kumhwa was coordinated with a general advance on the central front above Chunchon. AP correspondent William C. Barnard reported the allies were across the old political boundary in force.

"Chinese Communists hurled machine gun, mortar and small arms fire in an effort to stem the continuous advance," Barnard reported.

Active Front 40-Miles Wide
The active front stretched more than 40 miles from north of Chunchon to the western sector some 35 to 40 miles north of Seoul, liberated Korean Republic capital.

In the western sector, south of Chorwon, the Chinese fought fiercely against the American tank infantry teams.

"We have to kill them in their holes," one officer told AP correspondent John Randolph.

The Americans there seized two hills after routing four Chinese battalions from dug-in defenses.

Two Chinese army corps—the 26th and 40th—were reported on the western front. That would mean a strength of between 50,000 and 60,000 men.

The U. S. Eighth army's field commanders estimated another 300,000 Reds backed them up on that front and that an additional 180,000 to 240,000 Communists were massed on the central front.

Ridgway Crosses 38th
Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, the U. S. Eighth army commander, went north of 38 with his troops on one of his frequent visits to the frontline.

Correspondent Randolph reported the Chinese had strongly fortified the western sector—on the left side of the defense triangle with its apex at Kumhwa. He said some of the trenches have concrete walls nearly two feet thick.

On the extreme eastern front, Republic of Korea (ROK) forces still moved slowly northward without major Red contact. They were at least 15 miles north of parallel 38 on the sea of Japan coast.

Battleship Missouri Into Pearl Harbor
PEARL HARBOR, April 5—(P)—The battleship Missouri arrived at Pearl Harbor today en route to California after months of bombarding the Reds along Korea's coast.

Two Plead Guilty To Theft Of Hogs
FULTON, Mo., April 5—(P)—Two former employees of the state hospital pleaded guilty today to the theft of 13 hogs and were placed on probation for two years.

Entering the pleas in Circuit court were Doyle Christopher and Paul Thomas. The hogs were taken March 20.

Protective Gates At Rail Crossings
The Missouri Pacific railroad has erected automatic traffic gates at Ohio and Kentucky crossings. These large gates swing low as the trains approach, stopping any traffic until the trains have passed.

Work was started today on the erection of gates at the Engineer crossing.

The work is being done by the railroad's signal department, R. G. Shaw, Pacific, foreman in charge.

Mr. Shaw said today these gates are counter-balanced, and if a car should get caught as the gates are lowering, they will not damage the car and the driver should just stop and wait until the gates are raised again.

Ordination to Locke Bowman
Locke Bowman, Jr., a student from the Broadway Presbyterian church at McCormick seminary, has completed his course of study there and is to be examined for ordination and licensure. He will be ordained at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the First Presbyterian church in Clinton.

Bowman, whose home was in Clinton, attended Central Business college in Sedalia and was employed in the news department of the Sedalia Democrat-Capital.

He left here to enter William Jewell college in Liberty and lapsed from the church. The state claimed Rutledge lay in wait for Hattman, killed and robbed him.

Houston is the doctor's old home town. He opened a children's clinic here shortly after he was released from prison.

A number of Sedalians will go to Clinton Friday to see Mr. Bowman ordained.

Crowd Attends S-C Carnival

The large crowd that attended the Smith-Cotton high school carnival Friday night received a big disappointment at 9:00 o'clock when the electric power failed and threw the entire building and cafeteria into darkness. The power was not restored until an hour and 15 minutes later despite efforts of employees of the Missouri Public Service Company, who changed wiring circuits.

The main show, in the auditorium, had been on 45 minutes and the crowd was just beginning to get the carnival feeling, but the power failure dampened its spirits and its soon thinned out before the lights flickered on again.

The Senior class won the ticket sales drive and its queen, Ruth Ann Bohon, was crowned queen of the Smith-Cotton carnival. Her attendants were Martha Graham, Beth Whitfield, Mary Peters and Peggy Garanson.

There were many good shows in this year's carnival and patrons all seemed satisfied with the performances. The "Boys' Follies" drew the most laughs and was entertaining. The "Cotton Cuties" was the outstanding musical besides the main show.

Figures are not yet available for the net profits but it was estimated that between $300 and $500 were lost during the power failure. The profits represent the money that goes for paying for the new $7,000 curtains and other school projects.

The conference which brought together 290 girls will close Sunday morning with a general session under the direction of the St. Joseph Scouts.

"It's Fun To Give Blood"

Now, that's a true statement, if we ever make one. Remember the Blood Bank during the late war? Over at the Elks club? The nurses, all of whom were pretty... the lines of people, many of them your friends, many of them strangers who became friends...

You were stretched out on a cot, and you got into conversation with the blood donor on the next cot... You got a tiny prick in the arm, then you flexed your hand, the rhythm made itself: one, two, three, four, five... You counted and pushed your head around it so that you could make sure it was a full pint... then it was over, and somehow or other you felt wonderful... into the next room, and all those cookies and sandwiches, and gallons of good, rich milk, gallons of fragrant coffee... Gray Ladies and the Pauline Christians, boys quartet, "The Bells of St. Mary's," Jimmie Hopkins, Edyl Christian, Taylor Boring, Earl Roark; girls glee club, "Cloud Shadows," mixed chorus, "Down in the Valley," boys glee club, "Roadways."

You started looking forward to the time when the Unit would come back. Yes, it was fun to give blood. It's going to be fun this time too. It isn't time to register yet. But it is time to think about it. In a few weeks now, the Mobile Unit will be here in Sedalia. The lines will form again. We want to see all the old guard back again, and a new guard (the ones who have grown up in the interim). Last time, Sedalia and the county broke the national record. We want to do it again.

H. E. Bloss Heads Board Of Education

Officers of the Sedalia Board of Education for the 1951-52 school year were re-elected at a meeting of the board Wednesday night in Smith-Cotton high school.

President, Herman E. Bloss; vice-president, Palmer Nichols; secretary, Frank W. Hayes; treasurer, Juanita Berry.

Heber U. Hunt was re-elected superintendent of schools.

Prior to this Dr. G. H. Abney and Dr. Floyd L. Lively took oath of office as board members. Dr. Abney having been re-elected, and Dr. Lively elected in the Tuesday election.

R. M. Overstreet, retiring board member, was commended for his services in a resolution adopted.

The school term for 1951-52 was set at nine months.

Levy Is Fixed
The school levy for the coming year was established as follows: Teachers and Incidental..... $1.00 Sinking and Interest funds..... .25

Total..... $1.25

This represents a reduction of four cents in the Sinking and Interest fund rate. So that there may be no confusion concerning interpretation of this specific reduction the following explanation is given:

"Funds derived from this 25 cents Sinking and Interest fund rate can only be used for payment of interest and principal on the bonded indebtedness of the district and CANNOT be used for OPERATING expenses of the school. When the $800,000 bond issue was approved May 7, 1946, the Sinking and Interest rate was set at 29 cents which was supposed to be constant during the 20-year period.

"However, because valuations have increased somewhat since that time, the 29-cent rate which is set by the board has produced and is producing a little more revenue than was anticipated at that time. Therefore, the board was able to make this specific reduction of 4 cents."

After the above business was completed the board discussed at length the financial situation of the Sedalia school district and the need for an additional levy for the coming year. A final decision on this matter will not be made until the next regular meeting Wednesday, April 11.

Pennies Multiply Into Millions

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 5—(P)—Ace Gutowsky, a Russian immigrant who became a wealthy Oklahoma oil man, died last night of a heart ailment. He was 64 years old.

He discovered the rich West Edmond oil field near Oklahoma City.

Gutowsky was a believer in the "doodlebug," a device used by some for finding oil. He made it pay off.

Gutowsky, who changed his name from Assaph to "Ace," arrived in Baltimore at the age of 16 with three cents. But his pennies multiplied into millions in the oil business.

His good fortune made him outspoken in his praise of America, "the land of opportunity."

"Every man has a chance here," he once said, "no matter who he is, rich man, poor man. They all go to the same schools, theaters."

One of his convictions in later life was that "they have to get the Communists out of America."

The best method, in his opinion, "is by being good Christians." He was a member of the Baptist church.

In recent years Gutowsky made his home in McAlester, Tex., where he operated extensive agricultural holdings in the Rio Grande Valley.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

President Truman, in his statement yesterday regarding the final chapters of the "great debate" chose to stress the positive and overlook the negative in the Senate's action.

He says the result is notice of a firm stand by the United States in its support of the Atlantic treaty. And that is correct. Americans know that if and when the matter of more troops comes up, the Senate will again go along with the immediate requests of the nation's top military men.

It was not the debate over the actual sending of troops to Europe which took all the enthusiastic spirit out of an important new step in a revolutionary American policy which began with the Marshall plan and has now proceeded through the Atlantic pact, plans for a unified American-European army "to defend Western Europe, to the commitment of an additional 100,000 GI's. It was the amendment which expressed the feeling of the Senate that Truman was wrong about his powers to deploy troops as he wished and demanding that he come to the Senate for approval on each occasion. It was a rebuke to the President in the conduct but not the substance of foreign affairs.

The same thing has been happening for the last several years. As pointed out in this column yesterday, it is the result of traditional jealousy over prerogatives between the legislative and executive branches of the government.

The big trouble is that, whereas the amendment may have little or nothing to do with the eventual number of troops America sends to Europe, it has an important effect on what the allied governments are trying to achieve, which is enthusiasm and mutual confidence for a program which is by no means given unanimous approval by the European public.

The troop issue is not the only one involved. The Senate action tends to weaken the confidence of European governments in the ability of the executive branch of the American government to go through with any commitment which may be negotiated as time goes on. At every conference table the shadow of Congress, with its tendency to let domestic politics interfere with foreign affairs, is in the background.

Americans have long been impatient with France because a similar situation exists under their parliamentary system. It would then seem reasonable to argue that France will understand. But common fault does not always lead to mutual sympathy or understanding. The reverse may be true.

The only safe attitude for the United States to take in these days is that war is approaching—slowly or rapidly depending upon fallible human evaluation of trends which we will reproach ourselves 10 years from now for not seeing more clearly that we do. In that case one of the greatest needs is esprit de corps—enthusiasm for the steps which are to be taken, confidence of success and unity in approach.

Gen. Eisenhower said the other day, in effect, that Red faces among European governments meant less than the white faces of the people, by which he meant their fear. One thing needed to eliminate that fear is confidence in the United States and the greatest contribution the U. S. can make toward that is to adopt a common front in Washington.

As the Washington Post editorialized, "the United States is finally and irrevocably committed to fight on land, sea or in the air if Western Europe should be attacked."

A little more elan and a lot less foot-dragging as America undertakes each individual step would go farther than words to convince Europe.

Public Hearing To Be Held on Law Enforcing

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 5—(P)—A five-man Senate subcommittee opened the way today for anyone to tell what's wrong with Missouri criminal laws and law enforcement.

Any group or individual with something to say will have a chance to say it at a public hearing, Sen. Richard J. Chamier (D) of Moberly, the subcommittee chairman, said.

He promised that "we won't browbeat any witness or go on a witch hunt."

Chamier is Democratic floor leader and chairman of the Senate Judiciary committee. He appointed two Democrats and two Republicans to serve with him on the investigating subcommittee.

The Democrats are Sen. William M. Quinn of Maywood, president pro tem of the Senate, and Sen. D. W. Gilmore of Benton.

They, with Chamier, sponsored the resolution calling for study of criminal laws and enforcement.

Republican members are Sen. Jasper Smith of Springfield, minority floor leaders, and Sen. Harwell G. Crain of St. Louis county.

Chamier said the first hearing will be held just as soon as Missouri law enforcement officials have something to present—perhaps next week.

Invitations Sent
After the group sent invitations to Chief Justice Laurence M. Hyde of the Missouri supreme court; Attorney General J. E. Taylor; Walter Raymond of Kansas City, president of the Missouri bar; Col. David E. Harrison, superintendent of the highway patrol; James W. Griffin, St. Louis circuit attorney; Henry Fox, Jr., Jackson county (Kansas City) prosecuting attorney; and the presidents of the St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph boards of police commissioners.

Both Chamier and Quinn emphasized that subcommittee hearings will be conducted with the same dignity and customs of the full judiciary committee.

That means, Quinn said, there will be no photographers allowed, no radio broadcasts of the hearings, and the committee will insist on courteous, dignified treatment of witnesses.

Taylor's rulings, they apparently mean that Daniel C. Rogers, a new board chairman is out of a job. Rogers declined to comment on the situation yesterday. He said the board will discuss it at a meeting here Monday.

Gov. Forrest Smith also refused to comment. He appointed Rogers a month ago to succeed Vance Julian of Clinton, whose appointment was withdrawn when it ran into Senate opposition.

Julian had been sharply criticized for accepting $50 a day payments while operating the St. Louis Public Service Company last year as the governor's agent. The state had taken over the company to avert a threatened strike.

The legality of the anti-strike law was challenged after the U. S. Supreme Court recently held that a similar Wisconsin law was unconstitutional.

From Poland To Warsaw to Make Home

Mother And Child Join Husband Who Arrived Earlier

Marta Janik, 20, a native of Kassel, Germany, smiles as she stands for the first time on American soil, holding her daughter, Elrud, two years old, in her arms, and looking toward a new life in a new land. Perhaps, had the camera man switched his

The Janik family had been brought to America from Poland by the National Catholic Welfare Conference relief services and their destination was Warsaw, Mo.

Julian, who is 23, was taken by the Germans at the age of 15 in 1942 and was made to work in the German shipyards. His father was a very successful tailor and still resides in Jaslo which is in the Russian area. His brother Edward, was a pilot with the Polish Air Force unit serving with the English Air Force and was killed in aerial battle over Munich.

Since March 3, 1945, Julian was a member of the American Army of Occupation and served five and one half years.

Julian met pretty Marta Fritz, whose father was a cashier in the Central Bank, in Kassel, Germany, on a double date and on August 9, 1948 they were married.

To Warsaw Monday
Last Monday the Janik family arrived in Warsaw where Julian is going to learn the printer's trade on the Benton County Guide. Al ready he has acquired the nickname of Johnnie, for really no good reason except that his co-workers seemed to feel that he should be called Johnnie.

Johnnie, who is working for M. N. White is getting along all right so far on his new job. Marta thinks she will get along all right, too, once she gets settled in her own home. And as for Elrud, she doesn't know that her young parents are starting on a big adventure—life in a new country.

The robbery occurred February 20 when a truck of the company was loaded with cigarettes and one case of cigarette lighters, then given out of the warehouse and to Kansas City by the thieves. The truck was later found parked in Kansas City.

Seek Reduction of Clark Sentence

Crowd to Meet Dorsey Band

It is time to take note of the king of notes, America's No. 1 band leader, Tommy Dorsey and his band, to be featured Monday night, April 9, at Convention hall, Liberty park.

People who have listened to him on the radio and have dozens of his tuneless records in their homes will have an opportunity to see the personable band leader in person and hear his colorful music first hand.

The Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce, whose main purpose seems to be to bring something different in entertainment to Sedalia just because they want people here to enjoy themselves, thought up this idea. They don't particularly care whether they make any money on it or not just as long as everybody has fun, and why shouldn't they when Tommy Dorsey's band plays. If there is any money left over the Jaycees will just put it in the fund for promoting something for the betterment of the town or putting on some other worthwhile project.

The more they make the more things they can do for the town.

Not only Sedalians but many from surrounding cities, Jefferson City, Marshall, Warrensburg and many other places will be out at Convention hall Monday night to hear Tommy and his band. An added attraction, and a really excellent one is the redhead, Frances Irvin of movie, radio, television and musical play fame. Frances is the soloist and is not only a nightingale but is lovely to look at, too.

So Monday night, sponsors declare will be a big night for the people of central Missouri. The Jaycees don't want to get out the band to meet this celebrity they want to get out the people to

Double Slaying Just Year Ago

KANSAS CITY, April 5—(P)—One year ago tonight three policemen answered a call to 716-718 Truman Road.

Inside they found the bodies of Charles Binaggio, northside political leader and his henchman, Charles Gargotta. Both men had been shot four times.

The murders still are unsolved. Two main theories have been advanced as reasons for the slayings. One is that Binaggio was killed because he failed to produce on a promise to open up Missouri for gambling operations. Gargotta was killed because he was with Binaggio.

The other theory is that Binaggio's death was ordered by international chieftains of the underworld in a meeting at Tijuana, Mexico.

Third Arrest In a Robbery

Charles Garrola Held at Kansas City as Suspect

KANSAS CITY, April 5—(P)—Charles Garrola, 40-year-old Kansas City man sought by Pettis county in connection with $2,000 cigarette theft at Sedalia, was released today on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Circuit Court of Appeals held that Jackson county authorities had no authority to serve a warrant on Garrola because it was not properly endorsed by a Jackson county magistrate.

Jackson county deputies arrested Garrola April 3 in Clay county on a warrant issued by Sheriff John F. Taylor of Pettis county. The absence of Sheriff Taylor, the only authority who could serve the warrant, permitted Garrola freedom today.

A third person, arrested in Kansas City in connection with the robbery of the Mid-Continent Wholesale Co., 421 West Main, is being held in the Jackson county jail for Pettis county authorities. He has been identified as Charles Garrola, 40, 5934 The Paseo.

The man, picked up several days ago, filed for a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Paul A. B
